February 2018

Dear Colleague

We are pleased to send you the syllabus for the N I A A 2018 Visual Arts Festival with the theme

Zimbabwe Today!

The 2017 festival attracted 1947 entries of which 700 were displayed at an impressive exhibition at the Jubilee Hall at Hartmann House.

Please read the syllabus for administrative and presentation of artwork guidelines carefully to ensure there is no confusion and disappointment when work is not accepted.

We have changed the syllabus quite radically this year in that there are eight subject areas (A – H) which are not age specific. Consequently the entry form and labels have been amended to include the Title Code. This Title Code (A – H) as well as the Grade/Form must be on all entry forms and labels in the appropriate places.

Both two and three dimensional work is welcome but consideration must be given to transportability of the presentation to avoid breakages. You will be required to move any large pieces from St Christopher's to the exhibition venue once marking is complete. Schools should nominate an individual to be responsible for collecting artwork that is not going to be exhibited at Hartmann House from St Christopher's during the school holidays.

Schools in Harare: Artwork is to be delivered to St Christopher's, 2 Tonbridge Way, Groombridge/New Alex Park (where we do the marking) on the 10th August – the day after schools close at the end of the second term. Please comply with our stipulation that all artwork is delivered on that day to that venue between the hours of 9.00am and 4.00pm. The school is unable to process the acceptance of artwork on other days.

Schools outside of Harare who rely on parents or a courier service to deliver artwork may deliver to our offices no earlier than 1st August 2018.

The offices of the National Institute of Allied Arts are open Monday to Friday 9.00 am - 12.30 pm Tel: 702989. Please direct all queries and correspondence to the offices of the institute.

Account details: CABS 1002 617 219. Please state school name on deposit slip.

We very much look forward to receiving your entries for 2018.

V Hounsell
Festival Director
